

FEATURES

- 30 SARANDON, SERIOUSLY By Aimee Lee Ball
Fighting AIDS, the FBI, U.S. foreign policy, and homelessness: Susan Sarandon doesn't just act, she acts up.
- 22 THE BANDLER METHOD By Frank Clancy and Heidi Yorkshire
Richard Bandler convinced the CIA and thousands more that he could unlock secrets of the mind. Few knew his own secret life—until Corine Christensen turned up dead.
- 34 MURDER By Amy Hempel
A short story about marriage and things worse.
- 36 OVER THERE By Mary Jo McConahay and Robin Kirk
Why America is addicted to its dead-end drug war abroad.

Substance abuse: U.S. drug spraying and its casualties. p. 36

Previews: Our new eye on the mixed-up media. p. 53

DEPARTMENTS

- 3 BACKTALK
An editor's guide to the new Mother Jones. Also: the readers on Amnesty, Somocistas, Solidarity, and snobs.
- 7 BAD ATTITUDE By Barbara Ehrenreich
A note to my new presidential pen pal.
- 10 OUTERONT
Public Enemy's hype, glasnost's sexology, Michelle Shocked's politics, the Rainbow's upstarts, and more.
- 16 LATEST THINKING By Douglas Foster
What to do with a dead yuppie myth.
- 19 HOT SPOTS By Victor Perera
In Guatemala it's publish and perish. But muckraker Julio Godoy won't budge.
- 43 MEDIA WATCH By Roger Wilkins
Why did the best election stories run after the election?
- 45 TRIPS By Joseph Hooper
Socially responsible travel: excess ethical baggage?
- 48 OUT OF POCKET By Steven S. Ross
How to keep your value—and values—during the Bush recession.
- 53 PREVIEWS
Movies you'll never see, Robbie Conal's guerrilla art, Sallie Bingham's rich revenge, Bush-era impressionism, etc.
- 68 1619 EAST CROWLEY By Lynda Barry
Welcome to Edna's diary. You'll laugh! You'll cry! You'll thank God you'll never be 15 again.

From mind control to out-of-control. p. 22

Michelle Shocked's songs of a knee-jerk anarchist. p. 10

This One

QJDL-UT2-1W6J

Cover photo by Marcia Lieberman. Stylist: Magdalena Sprudin; makeup: Helen McCauley; suit by Armani; jewelry by Tom Binns.